

INVESTMENT COMMITTEE CHAIR MANDATE

Role

The primary role of the Investment Committee Chair (the “Committee Chair”) is to:

- provide effective leadership of the Investment Committee (the “Committee”);
- manage the operations of the Committee, the relationships between management and the Committee; and
- ensure the successful fulfillment of the Committee’s mandate and any other matters delegated to the Committee by the Board.

Appointment

The Committee Chair will be a duly elected member of the Board, be appointed by the Board each year, and satisfy applicable independence standards.

Accountabilities and Responsibilities

The Committee Chair shall have the accountabilities and responsibilities as set out below:

1. Ensure that the responsibilities and duties of the Committee, as outlined in its Mandate, are well understood and effectively executed by the Committee members.
2. Chair all Committee meetings, including in camera sessions – in the absence of the Committee Chair, the other members shall appoint a Committee member to chair the meeting.
3. Ensure that the Committee meets at least quarterly and as many additional times as necessary to carry out its duties effectively.
4. Promote proper flow of information to the other members of the Committee to ensure they are apprised of all matters material to MCAN.
5. Set the meeting agenda with input from other Committee members, the Chair of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the Vice President, Investments, Vice President, Single Family Mortgage Operations, Vice President, Operations and the Secretary.
6. Ensure that sufficient time is allotted during Committee meetings for the effective discussion of agenda items and key issues and concerns.
7. Report to the Board on the activities, findings and any recommendations of the Committee and act as liaison between the Committee and the Board.
8. Ensure that the Committee meets at least quarterly in closed sessions with the Vice President, Investments, Vice President, Single Family Mortgage Operations and, as required, with the Vice President, Operations, the Vice President, Treasury and Securitization and such other officers as required.
9. Deal effectively with dissent and work constructively towards arriving at decisions and achieving consensus.

10. Coordinate with the Committee to retain, oversee, compensate and terminate independent advisors/counsel to assist the Committee in its activities.
11. Together with the Conduct Review, Corporate Governance & Human Resources Committee, ensure that a performance evaluation of the Committee is conducted biennially.
12. Ensure this Mandate and the Investment Committee Charter are reviewed annually and any recommendation for improvement or compliance be provided to the Board.
